REUTERS

Sanitized - Approved For Release : CIA-RDP75-0 DECEMBER 29, 1965

FOIAb3b

CPYRGHT R 45.

CAIRO. EGYPT. DEC. 29 (REUTERS) THE SUPREME STATE SECURITY COURT HELD A ONE-HOUR SECHET SESSION HERE TODAY ON THE SECOND DAY OF THE TRIAL OF MUSTAPHA AMIN, FORMER CAIRO NEWSPAPER EDITOR CHARGED WITH IMPARTING DEFENSE SECRETS TO FOREIGN AGENTS.

THE COURT THEN ADJOURNED UNTIL SATURDAY. THE PROSECUTION HAD COMPLETED ITS CASE, COURT SOURCES SAID. THE TWO-DAY BRI THE TWO-DAY BREAK WAS AT THE REQUEST OF AMIN & DETENSE LAWYERS TO STUDY

THE CASE.

AT YESTERDAY S BRIEF OPENING LESSION, AMIN, FORMER EDITOR OF THE INFLUENTIAL AL AKHAAR DAILY, PLEADED NOT GUILTY ON THE SECRETS CHARGES BUT GUILTY ON TWO CHARGES OF ILLEGAL CURRENCY DEALS.

AMIN WAS ARRESTED JULY 21 WITH A UNITED STATES EMBASSY OFFICIAL TO WHOM HE WAS ACCUSED OF HANDING OVER ECONOMIC

AND MILITARY INFORMATION HARMFUL TO STATE SECURITY.

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT SENIED THE OFFICIAL, BRUCE
TAYLOR ODELL, RECEIVED ANY SUCH INFORMATION. HE WAS FREED AFTER CLAIMING DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY, AND RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES.

THE JUDGES, PRESIDED OVER BY GEN. MOHAMMED FOUAD EL DIGWY, HAVE THE POWER TO ASK FOR THE DEATH SENTENCE ON THE SECRETS CHARGES, AS EGYPT IS STILL FORMALLY AT WAR WITH ISRAEL. DM 7.50A

CPYRGHT